Live a Life That Matters

Ready or not, some day it will all come to an end. There will be no more sunrises, no minutes, hours or days.

All the things you collected, whether treasured or forgotten will pass to someone else.

Your wealth, fame and temporal power will shrivel to irrelevance

It will not matter what you owned or what you were owed.

Your grudges, resentments, frustrations and jealousies will finally disappear

So too, your hopes, ambitions, plans and to-do lists will expire.

The wins and losses that once seemed important will fade away.

It won't matter where you came from.

It won't matter whether you were beautiful or brilliant.

Even your gender and skin colour will be irrelevant. So what will matter!

What will matter is not what you bought, but what you built. Not what you got, but what you gave.

What will matter is not your success, but your significance.

What will matter is not what you learned, but what you taught.

What will matter is every act of integrity, compassion, courage or sacrifice that enriched, empowered or encouraged others to emulate your example.

What will matter is not how many people you knew, but how many will feel a lasting loss when you're gone. What will matter are not your memories but the memories that live on in those who loved you.

What will matter is how long you will be remembered and for what.

Living a life that matters doesn't happen by accident. It happens by choice.

The Lords Prayer

Our father who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name, Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil,
For thine is the kingdom, The power and the glory,
For ever and ever, Amen
